Preamble

Her Majesty, Victoria, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, regarding with her Royal Favour the Native Chiefs and Tribes of New Zealand, and anxious to protect their just Rights and Property, and to secure to them the enjoyment of Peace and Good Order, has deemed it necessary, in consequence of the great number of Her Majesty's Subjects who have already settled in New Zealand, and the rapid extension of Emigration both from Europe and Australia which is still in progress, to constitute and appoint a functionary properly authorised to treat with the Aborigines of New Zealand for the recognition of Her Majesty's Sovereign authority over the whole or any part of these islands. Her Majesty therefore being desirous to establish a settled form of Civil Government with a view to averting the evil consequences which must result from the absence of the necessary Laws and Institutions alike to the Native population and to Her Subjects has been graciously pleased to empower and authorise me William Hobson, a Captain in Her Majesty's Royal Navy, Consul, and Lieutenant-Governor of such parts of New Zealand as may be or hereafter shall be ceded to Her Majesty, to invite the confederated and independent Chiefs of New Zealand to concur in the following Articles and Conditions.

Article The First

The Chiefs of the Confederation of the United Tribes of New Zealand and separate and independent Chiefs who have not become members of the Confederation, cede to Her Majesty the Queen of England, absolutely and without reservation, all the rights and powers of Sovereignty which the said Confederation or Individual Chiefs respectively exercise or possess, Territories as the sole Sovereigns thereof.

Article the Second

Her Majesty the Queen of England confirms and guarantees to the Chiefs and Tribes of New Zealand and to the respective families and individuals thereof, the full exclusive and undisturbed possession of the Lands and Estates, Forests, Fisheries, and other properties which they may collectively or individually possess, so long as it is their wish and desire to maintain the same in their possession; but the Chiefs of the United Tribes and the Individual Chiefs yield to Her Majesty the exclusive right of Pre-emption over such lands as the proprietors thereof may be disposed to alienate, at such prices as may be agreed upon between the respective proprietors and persons appointed by Her Majesty to treat with them in that behalf.

Article the Third

In consideration thereof, Her Majesty the Queen of England extends to the Natives of New Zealand Her Royal Protection and imparts to them all the Rights and Privileges of British subjects.

Now therefore, We the Chiefs of the Confederation of the United Tribes of New Zealand being assembled in Congress at Victoria, In Waitangi and We the Separate and Independent Chiefs of New Zealand claiming authority over the Tribes and Territories which are specified after our respective names having been made fully to understand the Provision of the foregoing Treaty, accept and enter into the same in the full spirit and meaning thereof. In witness of which, we have attached our signatures or marks at the places and the dates respectively specified.

Done at Waitangi, this sixth day of February in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty.

TE TIRITI O WAITANGI/THE TREATY OF WAITANGI 1840

translated by Prof Hugh Kawharau

Victoria, the Queen of England, in her concern to protect the chiefs and the subtribes of New Zealand and in her desire to preserve their chieftainship (1) arm their lands to them and to maintain peace (2) and good order considers it just to appoint an administrator (3) one who will negotiate with the people of Zealand to the end that their chiefs will agree to the Queen's Government being established over all parts of this land and (adjoining) islands (4) and also because there are many of her subjects already living on this land and others yet to come. So the Queen desires to establish a government so that no evil will come to Maori and European living in a state of lawlessness. So the Queen has appointed "me, William Hobson a Captain" in the Royal Navy to be Governor for all parts of New Zealand (both those shortly to be received by the Queen and (those) to be received hereafter and presents (5) to the chiefs of the Confederation chiefs of the subtribes of New Zealand and other chiefs these laws set out here.

The first

The Chiefs of the Confederation and all the Chiefs who have not joined that Confederation give absolutely to the Queen of England for ever the complete government (6) over their land.

The second

The Queen of England agrees to protect the chiefs, the subtribes and all the people of New Zealand in the unqualified exercise (7) of their chieftainship over their lands, villages and all their treasures (8). But on the other hand the Chiefs of the Confederation and all the Chiefs will sell (9) land to the Queen at a price agreed to by the person owning it and by the person buying it (the latter being) appointed by the Queen as her purchase agent.

The third

For this agreed arrangement therefore concerning the Government of the Queen, the Queen of England will protect all the ordinary people of New Zealand and will give them the same rights and duties (10) of citizenship as the people of England (11).

[signed] William Hobson Consul & Lieut. Governor

So we, the Chiefs of the Confederation of the subtribes of New Zealand meeting here at Waitangi having seen the shape of these words which we accept and agree to record our names and our marks thus.

Was done at Waitangi on the sixth of February in the year of our Lord 1840.

Footnotes

(1) "Chieftainship": this concept has to be understood in the context of Maori social and political organization as at 1840. The accepted approximation today is "trusteeship".

- (2) "Peace": Maori "Rongo", seemingly a missionary usage (rongo - to hear i.e. hear the "Word" - the "message" of peace and goodwill, etc).
- (3) Literally "Chief" ("Rangatira") here is of course ambiguous. Clearly, a European could not be a Maori, but the word could well have implied a trustee-like role rather than that of a mere "functionary". Maori speeches at Waitangi in 1840 refer to Hobson being or becoming a "father" for the Maori people. Certainly this attitude has been held towards the person of the Crown down to the present day - hence the continued expectations and commitments entailed in the Treaty.
- (4) "Islands" i.e. coastal, not of the Pacific.
- (5) Literally "making" i.e. "offering" or "saying" - but not "inviting to concur".
- (6) "Government": "kawanatanga". There could be no possibility of the Maori signatories having any understanding of government in the sense of "sovereignty" i.e. any understanding on the basis of experience or cultural precedent.
- (7) "Unqualified exercise" of the chieftainship - would emphasise to a chief the Queen's intention to give them complete control according to their customs. "Tino" has the connotation of "quintessential".
- (8) "Treasures": "taonga". As submissions to the Waitangi Tribunal concerning the Maori language have made clear, "taonga" refers to all dimensions of a tribal group's estate, material and non-material - heirlooms and wahi tapu (sacred places), ancestral lore and whakapapa (genealogies), etc.
- (9) Maori "hokonga", literally "sale and purchase". Hoko means to buy or sell.
- (10) "Rights and duties": Maori "tikanga". While tika means right, correct, (eg "e tika hoke" means "that is right"), "tikanga" most commonly refers to custom(s), for example of the marae (ritual forum); and custom(s) clearly includes the notion of duty and obligation.
- (11) There is, however, a more profound problem about "tikanga". There is a real sense here of the Queen "protecting" (i.e. allowing the preservation of), the Maori people's tikanga (i.e. customs) since no Maori could have had any understanding whatever of British tikanga (i.e. rights and duties of British subjects.) This, then, reinforces the guarantees in Article 2.

NINETEENTH SCHEDULE

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
Auckland University Students Association
(AUSA)
AND THE
Epsom-Tai Tokerau Students Association (Inc)
(ETTSA)

Article 1 – Purpose.

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to outline an understanding of the roles of AUSA and ETTSA regarding the student representation of Auckland University Students at the Epsom Faculty of Education.

Article 2 – Background.

The modern ETTSA (formerly known as ACESA) was formed in the 1980's when the Primary and Secondary Colleges were fused but there has been a Student Association in other guises, within the organisation since 1906.

ACESA voted to become a compulsory Students Association in 1999 and was funded solely from the fee charged to all students.

In 2004 the Auckland College of Education and the University of Auckland formally agreed to merge, whereby the Auckland College of Education became the Faculty of Education – Epsom Campus and it's students became enrolled as University of Auckland students.

Article 3 – Guiding Principles.

1. The recognition and need for Auckland University Students studying at the Faculty of Education Campuses in Epsom and Tai Tokerau, to be adequately represented by an Association independent of the University of Auckland.
2. AUSA recognises the ETTSA has an extensive history of representation at the Epsom and Tai Tokerau Campuses.
3. ETTSA recognises that AUSA has an extensive history of representation of Auckland University Students.
4. AUSA recognises that the ETTSA Executive has been fairly elected and is best suited to understand and represent Epsom and Tai Tokerau Campus Students effectively
5. ETTSA recognises that AUSA is best suited to represent all Auckland University Student irrespective of Campus, at a wider institutional level.

6. AUSA recognises the autonomy of ETTSA in the administration of its internal affairs and processes, and does not seek to usurp that autonomy.

Article 4 – Terms and Conditions.

1. AUSA and ETTSA will prepare a joint membership form, whereby students of the Epsom Campus will become both members of AUSA and ETTSA.
2. All assets previously held or subsequently acquired by ETTSA will remain under the control of ETTSA.
3. Any student enrolling in at least one paper at the Epsom Campus will be regarded by AUSA as an Epsom Student.
4. The Epsom-Tai Tokerau Students' Association Executive (hereinafter called "ETTSA Executive") will continue to have the following powers and duties:
 - (i) To further the interests of the students at Epsom Campus and secure the co-operation of the University in so doing.
 - (ii) To liaise between the students enrolled in papers at the Epsom Campus and the University.
 - (iii) To provide liaison between the Executive of the Auckland University Students' Association (hereinafter called the "AUSA Executive") and their members enrolled in papers on the Epsom Campus.
 - (iv) To make recommendations to the AUSA Executive as to the financial needs for student affairs.
 - (v) To represent the Epsom Campus student's interest to the AUSA Executive.
 - (vi) To provide support and advocacy for matters of concern to Epsom students regarding education, services, equity, facilities and development.
 - (vii) To assist development of clubs and societies, and promote the cultural, sporting and Social activities of the Association.
 - (viii) To promote the existing objects of ETTSA.
5. The AUSA Epsom Representative shall have the right to attend, speak and vote at meetings of the AUSA Executive as he/she requires in accordance with the appropriate and relevant clauses of the AUSA Constitution.
6. The AUSA Executive will give the recommendations of the ETTSA Executive the highest priority in matters relating to the Epsom students.
7. AUSA shall give due consideration to the financial requirements of ETTSA during annual budgetary processes and shall endeavour to allocate sufficient funding accordingly.

Article 5 – Timing, Amendments, Disputes.

1. The Memorandum of Understanding and the obligations and responsibilities contained within it will commence on the date of signing by both AUSA and ETTSA.
2. This Memorandum shall remain in force for an indefinite period.
3. The Memorandum of Understanding may be amended by mutual written consent of the two parties.
4. The Agreement may be terminated by the appropriate authorities of either party giving 6 months notice to the other party in writing, unless an earlier termination date is mutually agreed on.

5. In the event of a dispute arising between AUSA and ETTSA as to the terms of the Memorandum of understanding, or any other dispute within the spirit of the agreement, both parties shall act in good faith and seek to resolve the dispute expediently. If unable to reach a resolution, it is recommended that the dispute will be referred to an independent mediator, as negotiated between the parties.

6. Given that the purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to create a long-term agreement between AUSA and ETTSA, annual ratification is not required.

7. The Memorandum of Understanding will not terminate upon breach of its terms by either AUSA or ETTSA.
